What We Believe

God our Creator
Jesus Christ, our Saviour
The Holy Spirit, our Comforter
Salvation by Grace through Faith
The Bible, our Guide
The imminent return of our God
The Ten Commandments and the example of Jesus our standard of conduct
The seventh day as God's Sabbath from sunset Friday to sunset Saturday
The gifts of the Holy Spirit to the Church
Healthful living remembering that our bodies are the temples of the Holy Spirit
Observation of the Ordinance of Humility and the Lord's Supper
Baptism by Immersion
The return of one tenth of our income to the Lord
The support of the Gospel by willing missionary service and gifts as the Lord prospers us
The mortality of man and the resurrection
The blessed hope of the saved to eternal life at Christ's return

TODAY'S THOUGHT

If professed Christians love Jesus better than the world, they will love to speak of Him, their best Friend, in whom their highest affections are centred. He came to their aid when they felt their lost and perishing condition. When weary and heavy-laden with sin, they turned unto Him. He removed their burden of guilt and sin, . . . and turned the whole current of their affections. The things they once loved, they now hate; and the things they hated, they now love. Has this great change taken place in you?
